

Circles of Support:

Strengthening Personal Networks for Caregivers

Train the Trainer Event

December 12 // 10am - 3pm
125 Skinner St, Victoria, BC

Come learn how to create 'circles of support' for caregivers of people living with dementia in your communities. This 'Train the Trainer' certification class will give you all the materials, skills and ongoing support to create more capacity within your organizations, clients and their caregivers.

This will be an opportunity to strengthen personal networks for caregivers and the communities they live in. This certification will be facilitated by Jodie McDonald of the Cowichan Family Caregivers Support Society. For further information please contact Pam Lewis of Island Community Mental Health at 250.389.1211 or email pam.lewis@icmha.ca
